Refund Conditions

Once the course has begun there is no automatic entitlement to a refund of fees. Applications for refunds must be made in writing to the Headmaster stating why the student is withdrawing from a course.

If the applicant has not begun his course, fees will be refunded less the administration fees of $2000.00.

If the applicant has begun his course, the following will be considered in determining any refund:

- An administration fee of $2000.00
- Tuition costs incurred by the school, including those affecting staff employed for the full year on the basis of enrolments
- Catholic Attendance Dues and Levy payments
- Any other costs considered relevant

No refunds will be made:

- After the end of Term 1
- To any student expelled from the school
- On the basis of a change of immigration status after 1st March.
