

Guidance Counsellor Process for Parents/Caregivers

Booking an appointment with the Guidance Counsellor

- If your son would like to book an appointment with the Guidance Counsellor, he can email mmccondach@rosmini.school.nz
 - You can also book an appointment for your son.
- The Guidance Counsellor will reply with an appointment date and time.
- Your son cannot turn up at the Guidance Counsellor's office without a pre-booked appointment.
- If the Guidance Counsellor replies that she is unavailable, your son should report to Student Services, and a member of the Senior Leadership Team or a Dean will assist him.
- Guidance Counselling sessions are for one student at a time ONLY. There are NO group sessions.

Immediate Guidance Counsellor Support During the School Day

- If your son requires immediate Guidance Counsellor support during the school day, he should report to Student Services and the Guidance Counsellor will be contacted.
- The Guidance Counsellor will either see him immediately or organise a time for an appointment.
- If the Guidance Counsellor is unavailable, a member of the Senior Leadership Team or a Dean may assist him, or you may be called to collect him.

Guidance Counsellor Support

- After meeting with your son, the Guidance Counsellor may;
 - Make another appointment for him
 - Engage with the relevant school Pastoral Care services - Dean, Learning Support, Deputy Headmaster, Priest, Deacon
 - Contact home
 - Contact an external agency for support, such as the Youth Crisis Line or an equivalent, should that be necessary.

Office

The Guidance Counsellor is based in the Counselling office in the Auditorium.
